

Study skills and habits

10 Recommended:
Year 10

Length:
110 minutes

About this lesson

Students will learn the value of resilience at school and in other areas of their lives. They will identify skills and habits that build resilience. They will explore potential barriers to success and they will relate learning styles to success at school. They will also reflect on ways to improve work habits and skills for future success.

Learning objectives

By the end of this lesson, students will:

- identify skills, habits, and behaviours they need to learn successfully
- explore potential obstacles to success in their schoolwork (such as lack of motivation, distractions, and lapses in self-confidence)
- plan how to develop positive study habits and behaviours

Driving question

How can I develop resilience?

Future-ready skills

Time-management Self-management Self-advocacy
Self-confidence Planning Setting goals

Lesson breakdown

- 15 minutes
- Activity 1: Resilient celebrities
- Ask students if they know any celebrities or famous people from history who overcame adversity to become extremely successful, respected, and powerful despite their struggles. Invite a few students to share their celebrity's story or get students to work in pairs to find an example online to share with the class. As a whole group, create a list of skills and habits these celebrities honed in order to succeed against the odds.
- 55 minutes
- Activity 2: Xello lesson: Study skills and habits
- Direct students to complete the Xello lesson: Study skills and habits where they will identify skills, habits, and behaviours they need to learn successfully in school, explore potential obstacles to success in their schoolwork (such as lack of motivation, distractions, and lapses in self-confidence), and plan how to develop positive study habits and behaviours.
- 20 minutes
- Activity 3: Learning styles assessment
- In this activity, students will keep building their study skills and habits by completing the Xello's Learning styles quiz to tap into how they learn and remember information best. As a class, discuss how these results might help you be resilient and persevere in school.

Recommended:
Year 10

Length:
55 minutes

About this activity

In the first activity students created a list of skills and habits celebrities and famous people honed in order to succeed against the odds.

In this activity, students will complete the Study skills and habits lesson in Xello, where they will identify skills, habits, and behaviours they need to learn in school, explore potential obstacles to success in their schoolwork (such as lack of motivation, distractions, and lapses in self-confidence), and plan how to develop positive study habits and behaviors.

Inquiry prompts

- What are some good study skills and habits?
- What techniques do you use when studying for a test?
- Do you think people can improve their study skills? How?
- What academic goals do you have? How will changes to your study habits help you achieve them?
- How can good study skills and habits help you even beyond school?

Before you begin

Before diving in with your students:

1. Create a copy or download the Study skills and habits slide presentation to use as a helpful teaching aid before and after the Xello lesson.
2. Review the slides (including the speaker notes section) for suggested discussion strategies and prompts.
3. Update slide 5 of the presentation with your students' Xello sign in format. If you don't know your students' Xello login format check out Sign in to Xello for support.

Teaching strategies

Use the following strategies to set your students up for success:

- 1 Before students start the Xello lesson, take 5 minutes to have them review and consider the inquiry prompts from the Warm up activity slide of the Study skills and habits slide presentation, or choose your own. Advise students to keep these questions in mind as they complete the lesson. You will revisit these questions with them in the Exit activity afterwards.
- 2 Help your students log in to their Xello account. Project your screen as you model how to navigate to the lesson using your demo student account. From the student dashboard, click on a lesson to get started. If the lesson you want isn't visible, access it by selecting View all lessons below the lessons shown.
- 3 Students finished early? If students have time after completing the Xello lesson, encourage them to add and rate (or update) their study skills in the Skills section of Xello.

Materials required

- Computers or tablets with internet access
- Whiteboard/projector

Activity 2 - Xello Lesson: Study skills and habits

Recommended:
Year 10

Length:
55 minutes

- 4 Once students have completed the Xello lesson, return to the Study skills and habits slide presentation to have students revisit the inquiry prompts you posed at the beginning of class.
- 5 Classroom discussion strategy: Round robin: Lead a round robin style discussion in which each person shares their answer to the first inquiry prompt: What are some good study skills and habits?

OPTIONAL: Document the responses. Is there a clear consensus in the class?

Activity 4: Work habits self-assessment

Work habits self-assessment

Student instructions

To build resilience, it's important to set goals you can achieve. Learn from your mistakes, and try again if things don't go to plan. Think about a time you learned a new skill outside of school. What helped you persevere? How did you demonstrate resilience when it was challenging?

- 1 Now think about a particular school assignment or task and complete the Work habits self-assessment worksheet from your teacher.
- 2 Upload a copy of your self-assessment to a Xello About me Storyboard. On your student dashboard, select Portfolios, then select Add portfolio. Title your portfolio Work habits and include a short description in the text box. Select Create portfolio. Add a section to your portfolio using the title Work habits self assessment. Select External media, then Next and upload your Work habits self assessment to your portfolio.
- 3 Based on your self-assessment, add and rate resilience and perseverance in your Skills section on your Xello About me profile.
