Entrepreneurship in Any Career

- 5 Think: what kind of business could you start in this career? There are lots of pathways to owning a business. Which of the following is a likely option in this career?
- A tech startup is a company that sells new technology products or services, or delivers them in new ways. The company often starts small and grows as it makes profits or gets funding.
 - A franchise is a license that a person (called a franchisee) buys from a large business like a store or restaurant. The franchisee can use the business's name and model to sell a service or product for profit.
 - A private practice is started by licensed professionals, usually in medicine, law, or counseling. The business is not controlled by another company or the government, so owners must find their own clients or patients.
 - A freelance service is offered to a client by an expert (called a freelancer) in an area like design, coding, or finance. Many freelancers get short-term contracts from multiple clients, and they may be paid by the hour or project.
 - A skilled trades business is a model that some skilled tradespeople use to promote and sell their services. They may have a shop or travel to clients' homes, depending on the trade (such as plumber, electrician, or welder).
 - An ecommerce store allows people to buy all kinds of products online. Customers can shop at any time, from anywhere in the world, and often get the products delivered to their homes.
- 6 Select Done to navigate back to the career profile. In the My Notes card under Explore This Career explain one business pathway for this career and the entrepreneurial skills and interests that would help you to succeed in the business venture. Use your notes from steps 4 and 5 to help support your idea.
- 7 OPTIONAL: Look at the Important Factors card for this career. If you were to pursue the entrepreneurship path in this career how would the ratings for each factor change? What would be the benefits and challenges of running this business?
